Dear John,

For a year, off and on, I've been wondering why you never answered my letter of last April 12.

We have been so broke getting there has been a complete impossibility.

However, I have been asked to make a speech at a college the week of the 6th. This makes my going there for as much as a week possible.

I'll be leaving here on the 6th.

I have heard nothing from Manny. I have written him telling him I will want to pick up my files because I will be seeking other counsel. He has never told me if the statute has run.

Because I have just gotten the date of the speech, I have not yet had time to make plans. I'll be pretty busy until I leave.

If you will want to get together, please let me know before I leave.

Our best,

HAROLD WEISBERG
